FLORIDA OSTEOPATHIC MEDICAL ASSOCIATION (FOMA) PROVIDES MEMBERS with ACCESS TO CE BROKER

Jacksonville, FL (December 1, 2005) – The Florida Osteopathic Medical Association (FOMA) has expanded their member benefits to include a ‘no cost’ subscription to CE Broker for FOMA Active, Provisional Active and 1st Year Members and a discounted subscription to all other FOMA Members. FOMA’s goal is that every member is successful in the 100% electronic audit thereby avoiding selection for a post audit.

CE Broker is the official repository where all Florida Board approved educational providers report course completions by Florida healthcare professionals. Compliance Determination Transcripts calculate compliance according to the continuing education requirements of the 28 independent healthcare regulating boards/councils.

In addition to FOMA assisting its members in monitoring their compliance with the requirements of the profession, FOMA will be able to run reports on unmet continuing education requirements. With this analysis of needs, FOMA will be better able to offer continuing education that is relevant and, at the same time, meets each member’s licensing needs.

“FOMA’s members are serious about continuing education and are constantly striving to improve their profession. Through this agreement with CE Broker FOMA will be able to assure that our profession continues to lead in its collaboration with the Florida Department of Health in regulatory compliance. We are pleased to be able to help our members avoid any surprises and fines as they renew their licenses by providing access to CE Broker so they can ensure their continuing education requirements are fulfilled.” – Joseph Giaimo, DO, president, Florida Osteopathic Medical Association.
