TAMPA OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN, SAMUEL MARTINO, DO, RECEIVES FOMA PHYSICIAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Tallahassee, FL – Samuel Martino, DO, of Tampa, Florida, received the 2018 Physician of the Year Award from the Florida Osteopathic Medical Association (FOMA) during its 2018 Annual Convention held February 21-25, 2018, in Weston, Florida. A crowd of more than 2,400 osteopathic physicians, healthcare professionals, and students attended the Convention.

The FOMA Physician of the Year Award has been presented to an osteopathic physician who, during the past year, has made significant and considerable contributions to the osteopathic profession, their patients and to the community on both a local and statewide level. Dr. Martino received this award in recognition and appreciation of his devotion as a leader, educator, and role model for the FOMA and osteopathic physicians in Florida.

Dr. Martino went to Jesuit High School and then to Tampa University. He received his osteopathic degree from KCUMB in Kansas City, Mo. After graduation he did his hospital training in Dayton, Ohio and then returned home to practice in Tampa. He retired in December 2017 from his family practice of over 42 years. Dr. Martino has been an Active member of the FOMA for over 43 years. During his 43 years as an FOMA member, he served as a Florida Delegate to the American Osteopathic Association House of Delegates.

The Florida Osteopathic Medical Association (FOMA) is the state association for osteopathic physicians in Florida. The FOMA has been serving osteopathic physicians since 1904. Our Executive Office is located in Tallahassee, Florida. The FOMA was organized for the purposes of advancing the science and art of osteopathic medicine; extending the benefits of scientific advancement to the treatment, prevention, and alleviation of human ailments; and promoting closer relationships between the osteopathic profession, FOMA members, and other groups dedicated to improved health care.
